Autobiography

My name is levgenii and I am 29. I was born in the village Ivanivka, Kharkiv region, Ukraine.

My family consists of my parents, brother and me. My father Anatolii is 52 years old. He is a farmer. My mother Tetiana is 50 years old. She is an accountant. My brother Mykola is 23 years old and he is a student.

My parents own a private house. Since childhood I always helped my parents. I had a lot of householdings, such as feeding and watering of domestic animals, cleaning of barns and yard, repairing work.

After secondary school, I found the job on the construction, where I started to work as a handyman.

After that I decided to go to Norway as I always wanted to see this country. I started to work on vegetable farm in May 2012 and worked till May 2014. My daily duties were work in greenhouses and on the open field, growing of tomatoes, cucumbers, cabbage and beet, fertilizing of soil, sorting and packing, transportation with tractor.

Then I went to Australia and worked there on banana farm from May 2015 till July 2016. My main duty was driving the special machine for processing banana palms. However, the warm climate and a big number of insects is not the life I am dreaming about.

While working abroad, I had a short visit to livestock farm in Norway with my friend who worked there. I was so excited by new technologies and robots!

In September 2016 I entered the faculty of veterinary of Agrarian Lyceum. I decided to become a vet. I finished the course in veterinary in 2019.

From December 2018 to September 2019 I was training on the pig farm in Denmark. There I was connected with modern methods and technologies in pig breeding. I did

- feeding pigs and sows,
- mixing food,
- vaccination,
- artificial insemination,
- work in the farrowing shop,
- cleaning and washing,
- transportation of goods.

Work on the modern livestock farm gave me a possibility to get a lot of new skills in animal care. I improved my communicative skills in English, too.

I have a driving licence for car, also I drive a tractor.

Now I am looking forward to get a place for work on the animal farm. I am open to everything new and I want to become a better specialist in future.

Regards,
levgenii
